Wrestling

The 1987-88 wrestling team was led by seniors Michael Richards, Jon Strange, Keith Graham, Bill Janosky, Eric Olsen and Gene Faulls through the tournaments and dual meet season. The team faced the most ambitious schedule any Dallas wrestling team has ever faced. The team started out slow in the Mountain Top Invitational due to the many wrestlers who were also on our outstanding soccer, football, and cross country teams. The team did well in the Troy Tournament, placing 2nd and the Gov. Mifflin Tournament. Champions at Troy were Keith Graham, Bill Janosky, and Mike Richards, with Eric Olsen and Ron Post also in the finals placing 2nd. Eric Olsen and Bill Janosky also placed in the Gov. Mifflin Tournament.

Although the team had a winning season there were a number of close meets that were tied or lost by a couple of points that could have made an excellent season out of a good season.

The wrestlers seemed to peak at the right time, doing very well in the Junior Varsity District Tournament and the District II Tournament, where Dallas placed third in team standings. Bill Janosky became Dallas' 31st District II Champion, as Eric Olsen, Gene Faulls, and Ron Post were runner-ups. Jim Newell and Mike Richards placed 3rd, and Jon Strange, who also had a great tournament place 4th.

Dallas qualified six wrestlers for the N.E. Regional Tournament. Eric Olsen and Ron Post both finished fourth in the tournament.

Baseball

The baseball team suffered its first losing season in seven years, but it returns a strong nucleus for next season. The team's MVP was Bob Ashworth, while Randy Coolbaugh was voted the team's outstanding defensive player. Scott Lamoreaux was the winner of the Darin P. Breining Memorial Award.

Softball

The girls' softball team experienced an outstanding season ending the year with a 20-3 record. They accumulated the following titles during the year: WVC Northern Division Champions, WVC A.A.A. Champions, P.I.A.A. District II Champions, and P.I.A.A. State Tournament Quarter-Finalist.

Several players received various recognitions for their help in the successful season. The Times Leader named Joyce Tinner, Laura Poynton, Tracy Hunter, and Jill Urbanas to the All-Star team. Jill Urbanas was also named the Times Leader's WVC-MVP. The Kiwanis All-Stars were Joyce Tinner, Jill Urbanas, and Chris Legenz. Jill Urbanas, Joyce Tinner, Laura Poynton, and Tracy Hunter were chosen as the Sunday Independent's All-Scholastic players.

The Lady Mounts voted for the team's outstanding defensive and offensive players. The results were: Jill Urbanas and Laura Poynton — Outstanding Defensive Players, and Joyce Tinner — Outstanding Offensive Player.

Volleyball

The boys volleyball team improved both their performance and their record this year. Under the leadership of Seniors Mark Krohn (Captain), Jeff Miller, and Mike Kester, Dallas went from a 10-3 record last season to a 5-8 record for this year. The team was aided by two foreign exchange students, Jochen Liske from West Germany and Luciano Ribeiro from Brazil, both of whom are seasoned players because of the popularity of the game in their countries. Dan Holdredge and Frank Bigler were first year Senior players whose contributions to the team enhanced the entire program. With several talented players returning for the 1988-1989 school year, the team promises continued improvement.

Newspaper

The staff of The Mountaineer enjoyed a productive year. Senior and Editor-in-Chief, Erin Friar, demonstrated her competence and dedication throughout the year to see that all aspects of newspaper production, from brainstorming ideas for articles to writing, editing, typing and paste-up, were well-coordinated and thoughtfully carried out. Aiding her in her job were Senior editors and writers Charlie Leaf and Kelly Weller accompanied by a small, but talented group of underclassmen. Charlie was the Sports editor and Kelly worked as a general editor and staff writer.

Both Erin and Charlie are planning careers in journalism. Erin was accepted at Temple University and Emerson College, both well known for their journalism curriculum. Charlie will gain experience in the armed forces. Kelly will use her skills for drafting legal documents as she pursues a law degree at Dickinson College.

These seniors leave a legacy of talent and dedication which continues to enhance journalistic standards and make The Mountaineers a newspaper to work hard for and be proud of.

Student Council

The Student Council planned several projects in the year and the 4th annual Spirit Chain competition was unbelievable! The Senior Class won the competition by purchasing 13,553 links. The Juniors tallied 9,108 links and the Sophomores finished third with 3,259 links. Mr. Preece's homeroom #4 won the Spirit Plaque. The money raised by the Spirit Chain allowed Student Council to continue with the ever popular dances at Dallas Senior High. Also, the re-birth of the Christmas movie and community projects benefited from the Spirit Chain competition.

Student Council contributed $200.00 to Mr. Pope's Sociology classes for their visitation to Clarks Summit.

A dance was held in March to defray the medical expenses of Amber Nicely. A check in the amount of $200.00 was presented to the Amber Nicely Fund.

The students and faculty at Dallas supported the Blood Drives and donated a total of 202 units of blood. A special thanks to all who donated.

Mr. Shevock hopes to expand the Student Council activities next year and thanks the students for supporting all the projects.

A special thank you goes out to Kyle Boudreaux, President of Student Council, who went above and beyond the call of duty in assisting Mr. Shevock.

The New England Feeling An American Lit Field Study

From May 4th-May 7th, a group of American Literature students spent four very full days experiencing the culture of the New England area. The students' trip included visits to the Mystic Marinelife Aquarium, the Mystic Seaport, and various other historic sites. The students also visited Nantucket Island, founded by Puritan farmer Thomas Macy, and Provincetown, the first landing site of the Pilgrims. The highlight of the trip was the tour of Plimoth Plantation, a living museum which is seemingly trapped in the 17th century. Through their visit to Plimoth Plantation, the students received first-hand insight on living conditions of the earliest New England settlers.

Of course, no trip to New England would be complete without a genuine clambake, including lobster and a good deal of clam chowder, a particular favorite of all the students.

The students not only had fun on this trip, but they also had a chance to learn about the cultural history of Colonial America. All of the New England travelers returned with a greater knowledge of Colonial New England and enough memories to last a lifetime.

Yearbook

The funds for the 1987-88 yearbook were very low, consequently the staff had to make cuts. Unfortunately, the first portion cut was the senior pictures in color. Hopefully, next year's class will bring back the color. The small but dedicated staff led by advisor Mr. Wagner used the available funds to put together a yearbook hopefully satisfying to the students. The unique layouts allowed for more candids. We, the staff, hope that the extra pictures will add to the finished product. The staff is proud of the book we have created and we feel that we have made a memorable yearbook to help remember our high school years.

Mr. Thomas D. Husband

Dedication

If there is one person who is long overdue in receiving the proper recognition he deserves for his commitment to the Dallas Senior High School, it is Tom Husband.

For the past thirty years or so, Mr. Husband has responsibly and professionally served as a contracted photographer for the yearbook and the patient and personable man behind the camera for thousands of Dallas students who have traditionally gone to him over the years for their senior portraits. It has been said that "Dallas wasn't there for Tom Husband, Tom Husband was there for Dallas." His work and service were always of the highest caliber. His quality work was duefully noted in every award the yearbook has received.

It is at this time that Mr. Husband looks toward retirement and subsequently has decided to concentrate his endeavors in the fine graphic prints and framing at his Wyoming Avenue establishment. We most certainly offer our best wishes to him and his family and we will certainly miss working with him.

In an attempt to express our great appreciation to this fine man, we, the 1988 yearbook staff dedicate this publication to Mr. Thomas D. Husband.

Advisor's Notes

For the past five years, the yearbook has had a plan which encouraged monumental strides in an effort to move forward and improve upon the previous year. Whether it be a classier cover, more creative layouts, additional pages or most recently the publication of senior pictures in color, the implementation of these new ideas was dependent on two basic elements — money and effort.

In 1983, we raised what we thought to be a lot of money — $2800. Each year saw an increase in advertisements and patron donation increase in money came a swell in enthusiasm on the part of the majority of students marked by the participation of close to two hundred fundraising staff members and an editing staff of thirty. The fruits of their labors were recognized by the American Scholastic Press Association who presented us repeatedly with first and second place awards for photography, content, creativity and organization.

This year these basic elements of success were lacking. Funds raised this year were less than half of that from last year, yearbook sales dwindled by fifty percent and the editing staff was stretched to the limit. The few dedicated veteran seniors and a handful of underclassmen had all they could do to produce the 88 book.

It is my hope that this is not a trend and that the quality of the yearbook will once again continue to be enhanced in years to come. In parting, my final bit of advice to all of the classes is to be involved, to be interested, be concerned and make the most of what are some of THE BEST YEARS.

William R. Wagner — Yearbook Advisor

Editor's Notes

I have been a member of the yearbook staff since my sophomore year. I am proud to have been the editor-in-chief in my junior and senior years. I have seen the staff reduced by unbelievable numbers, yet I have met several dedicated students. Without these students I fear Mr. Wagner, advisor, would be putting together the entire book. The 1987-1988 yearbook was easier to organize because of the various cuts in funds, and I am proud to say that this year saw the smallest but most dedicated group since I have worked on the staff. The students that comprised the staff that helped Mr. Wagner and me through the year and during the summer were: Kelly Weller, Marc Stella, Debbie Davenport, Holly Pitcavage, Andrea Dent, Amy Lynn Phares, and Lisa Davenport. Thank you very much, without you the yearbook would not have been as memorable as it is now.

On behalf of the entire yearbook staff I would like to thank Allyson and Marge, the Junior High secretaries, for their help during the year. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Yankowski from the Senior High also aided the staff, thank you. Thank you Mrs. Buda for helping us by providing pictures we were lacking and for the American Lit trip pictures. I would also like to thank Mark Moran for the football picture and Sol Barket for the underclassmen pictures. A special thanks to Tom Husband who took the activities and sports pictures as well as the majority of the senior pictures. The yearbook will miss your professional pictures that added to the book's aesthetic value.

Despite the help received by the above mentioned, the yearbook would not have been possible without the dedication of our advisor Mr. Bill Wagner. He has worked on the book to make it the best it could be. We, the staff,are grateful for his dedication and we are glad to have such a caring advisor. We will miss him next year. Thank you, Mr. Wagner, for making the yearbook a unique book of remembrance.
